Strikers Are Dispersed by Squads of Ten Men Each of Mounted Police Amid Showers of Bricks.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 16,-"Shoot to kill if a man reaches for your gun!" Those are the orders under which members of the state constabulary are working today at the plant of the Pressed Steel Car company, owing to the increasing gravity of the strike almation.

With the coming of daylight the rioting ceased but by nine-thirty o'clock so many idle workmen had congregated about the entrances to the mill, that constabulary, in squads of ten, scattered the strikers in all directions.

The troopers were showered with bricks but the combardment lasted nricita aut the comparament have halt a few moments. Several of the police were slightly burt. The number of injured as a result of today's disorder will total close to

The murders for which the Chinamen have been sentenced were committed Aug. 2, 1907. On the evening of that date ten Chinamen, armed with large-calibre revolvers, entered Oxford place, one of the thoroughfares of Washington, D. C., July 16,—Hetter shoot up the street, stores and nouse in the vicinity. Chin Mon Quin, Wong ferees during the forenoon session to ferees during the forenoon session to Mom were killed or died later from more division of the confersion of the conf and others were wounded.

Ten Chinamen were arrested and charged with the murders. The first trial began on Jan. 30, 1908, but was discontinued after three days because of the illness of one of the jurymen. In the meantime one of the accused Chinamen had died and the case of another was now pressed. The second trial began on Feb. 3, 1908, and fasted for twenty-nine days, the jury return-ing a verdict of guilty in all cases. Public interest centers almost wholly in the case of Warry Charles, who is one of the most widely known Chins-men in America. For a number of years he has conducted a large laundry business in Boston, with branches scattered throughout the city. Charles came from the Hoy Ping district in China with his uncle at the age of 11 years, being in the family of a mer-chant in China. He lived for a time in New Orleans and there became thoroughly acquainted with the Eng-lish language. From New Orleans he went to Omaha, where he took his scanty, carnings and started, a lad of 16, in husiness for himself. Ambitious to get ahead, intelligent,

Ambitious to get ahead, intelligent, active and sturdy, he sought an education. While he was attending a business college in Omaha the met Mary Whiting, a young woman who afterward became his wife and the mother of his children.

In New York Charles was successively an agent for the Santa Fo railsively an agent for the Santa Fe railroad, a dealer in stoves, laundry machinery, hardware, and interpreter in the court of general sessions, s floor walker in a department store, and a Chinese inspector under Secretary

Carlisle in the second Cleveland administration.

In New York he was arrested charged with conspiracy to betray government secrets, but was discharged. He was then Chinese inspector, but was suspended. He later worked for the Lexow investigating commission and came to Boston after having been attacked in New York. After coming to this city he served for a number of years as a court interpreter and became well known. The effort to save Warry Charles from the death chair has been taken up all over the country by mombers of the Army and Navy Union of which Warren Charles, a New York police. man and son of the condemned man, is a member. Several prominent army officers also have taken a lively interest in the cause of the condomned man and they are also doing some work. Gen. FATE OF A PERPETUAL CLOCK

Its Curlous Mechanism and Construc tion and Singular Disappearance After Reaching China.

In the eighteenth century an ingentous jeweler named John Cox of Shoe Lane, London, constructed a clock which was rendered perpetual by a cloverly contrived attachment which utilized the rise and fall of the barometer to supply the necessary on

The movement of the mercury ac tuated a cogwheel in such a manner that whether the mercury rose or fell the wheel always revolved in the same direction and kept the weights that supplied the movement of the clock always wound up. The baometer bulb dipped into a mercury ciatern. The cistorn hung attached to the extremities of two rockers, to the left end of one and the right end of the other.

The bulb was similarly attached to the other extremities of the rockers, which are thus moved every time there is a change in the amount of mercury in bulb and cistern respect-ively. The rockers actuated a vertical ratchet, and the teeth were so ar ranged that the wheel they controlled could only move in one direction, whether the ratchet ascended or descended.

The clock itself was an ordinary one, but of very strong and superfor workmanship, and was jeweled with 🖼 diamonds at every bearing, the whole being inclosed in a glass case which while it excluded dust, displayed the ientire mechanism. The fate of Cex's clock was brought to light in a work catted "Travels in China," published in 1801 and written by John Barrow, In this book it is stated that in the list of presents carried by "the late Dutch ambassador" were "two graint pleces of machinery that were part of the ourlous museum of Cox." One of those apparently was this perpetual clock, and it was taken by the Dutch embassy to China, where in the jour mey from Canton to Peking both the distruments suffered some slight damlage. Efforts were made to repair thom at Peking, but on leaving the capital it was discovered that the Chinese Prime Minister Ro-tchang tong had substituted two other clocks of very inferior workmanship and had reserved Cox's mechanism for him-

Nonductile, Metals. A difficulty in making filaments of nonductile metals, like tungsten, har been ingeniously overcome in a new patented process of the Slemens-Halske firm of Germany. The tungsten or other filament metal is inclosed in a thin coating of ductile metal, and the whole is drawn through a dieplate until the required filament, at tached to a conducting support, is then mounted in the lamp bulb. The nir is exhausted from the bulb, and an electric current is turned on, when the heat quickly drives off the ductile metal, leaving the refractory filament sten or other filament metal is inclosed

AMENDING THE CONSTITUTION

It is thirty-nino years since the fifteenth amondment of the constitution of the United States was ratifled. Up to that time no one had supposed that there was any insuperable obstacle to an amondment, as the number recorded in sixty years plainly witnesses. History in fact a reasonable demonstrates that change could always be achieved if the people went about the matter in the right way.

What may without offense be called the party of intrenched privilege has been singularly short-sighted and in nothing more so than in the prolonged tariff discussion at Washington. It has avolded revision downwards by the merest quibble. The true meaning and end of protection has been lost sight of and the representatives of that clique, both republican and democratic, have ignored their direct responsibility to the people of the price sooner or later, and already it quiring after the health of the famiis not difficult to hear the first mutterings of the storm.

"Income tax and high protection may be regarded as almost incompatible. No people will long telerate the payment of both direct and Indirect taxes where they involve a high cost of living with a toll upon income hesides. In order to shelve the income tax the truly non-partisan body of which Senator Aldrich is the leader and Senator Bailey the Beutenant, referred the matter to a constitutional amondment. They thought this was equivalent to postponing it Indefinitely, but they are likely to find that they have shown a helpless giant how to use his strongth," says the Wall Street Journal.

The amendment goes to the state legislatures now, and popular feeling, without respect to party, is strongly In favor of an income tax. It is highly probable that the necessary majority of the states will be found before the termination of the present congress, and the last state of the stand-patter is likely to be werse than the first. The intermission of nearly forty years had established an idea that the constitution of the United States was as unchangeable as the laws of the Medes and Perslans. The passage of an amendment will demonstrate the contrary, and we may be sure that, when once the real facility with which the change can be made has been realized, there will be other amondments to follow. This is the last thing which the interests repre- bors that we are a little bit better sented by Senator Aldrich could possibly have desired. They were strong in the belief that they enjoyed the permanent support of the supreme Spite walls of crass selfshness! court, and they were justified by the mass of constitutional decisions which that body from time to time

· banded down. They are right in the respect that the law so interpreted must be obeyed, but they are wrong in their assumption that the people of the United States had surrendered the right to change their own laws. It is safe to say that apart from its own effect, the sixteenth amendment of the constitution will bring in its train changes not at present contomplated, and changes which will cause grave disquiet to important vested inserted itself.

SPITE WALLS.

Ever see a "spite wall" or "spite

This is how it sometimes comes about:

The deg belonging to John Jones persists in loating over the lawn of Tom Smith, Jones' next door neighbor, and digging real holes for imaginary gophers, Beshles, Jones keeps chickens, and Smith has a gardon, Neighborly comity is strained.

Finally Mrs. Smith calls on Mrs. Jones to suggest-incidentally to inby-that the dog be fled and would they kindly fix it so the chickens would not care to wander from their own Bresides.

Mrs. Jones agrees in perfectly good faith that the dog is a trial and the chickens have an itinerant disposition difficult to restrain. She smilingly mentions the fact also that the Smith children are a little careless in their distinction between mine and thine. Moreover, Mrs. Smith good humoredly calls attention to the fact that Smith's old toment is a disreputable character and given to dissipation, whereupon Mrs. Jones, in perfect good humor, also pledges reform. Time moves on. There is little love lost between the Smith and Jones family, neighbors.

One day Smith is caught in the very act of wringing the neck of Jones' predutory rooster.

When Jones comes home that night he protests because of the assassination, whereat Smith volunteers advice concerning the keeping of roosters at home. And Jones rutorts about "dirty children." Perhaps there is no cinati of flats, but-

Chlengo.-Frederick Adrian Delano, who was offered the post of minister to China but has declined the honor, was born in Hong Kong, China, 44 years ago. His life has been one of stendy advancement from one sucgess to another. Having been born in China he had an unusual interest in the Orient and has kept a firm grasp on all its national affairs and its growth. Mr. Delano would have been ably fitted for the post had he seen fit to accept the position. He began at the bottom of railroad work an apprenticed machinist and in 24 years has advanced to the head of one of the great western rallroads.

WAITING FOR CAR TO STOP

Thrown from Pirtform of Streetcar and Foot Ground to Pulp

Under the Wheels. Mrs. Sherman B. Phelps, seventyme years old, who lives at 1109 Sharon Street, was seriously if not fatally

At the time the accident occurred Mrs. Phelos was standing on the front plutform of the ear, which was in charge of Conductor Millington and Motorman E. Murphy and was making the turn from Milwankee Street to Academy on the way to the pas-senger deputs. When the one struck the curve the aged woman lost her hold and fell to the pavement, the motorman's attempt to prevent her fall coming just a second too late. Before the car could be stopped the front wheel on the left side had

The injured woman, who still retained consciousness, was carried by pitying speciators to the southwest corner of the intersection, a fourniquet and and a call sent in form decicorner of the intersection, a tourinder applied, and a call sent in for a doctor and the ambulance. Dr. Nazum who arrived upon the scene immediately took charge and ordered the patient to be taken to the hospital, where an operation was immediately performed, and where the patient lics in a serious condition. Her extreme age, together with the shock of the accident and the operation, may prove too much for her to survive.

It appears that Mrs. Phelps was on the way to visit at the home of Lou Williams on High street and had told the conductor to let her off at the Grand hotel corner. Falling to do this Mrs. Phelps walked to the front of the car, hoping the car would stop in the block, and was standing on the front platform when thrown off.

In our Sanitary Bakery ONLY you will find special muchines for handling the flour.

First we run it through the blending machines and from there automatic elevators carry it up to the sifting machine where the flour is all sitted and aerated, through silk bolting cloth-from there noother elevator takes it up and deposits it in Dust Proof bins ready to weigh into the mixer. We do not dump it direct into the mixer from sacks as they come from the mill.

No lady at home can sift her flour so theroughly.

HARRY K. THAW

WHITE'S SLAYER PROBABLY WILL TAKE STAND IN SANITY

HEARING TO-DAY. EVELYN TELLS OF THREAT

Wife, When Forced to Answer by Court, Says Prisoner Declared Ho Would Kill Her-Not True Decteres Husband.

White Plains, N. Y., July 16,-Harry 16. Thaw probably will take the witness stand before the day is over, it being Justice Mills' plan to hear the prisoner before deciding the question of his sanity. Thaw probably will deny the statement made by his wife yesterday that he had threatened to

Mrs. Thaw was quoted after she left the stand as saying that she testified because of the treatment she received at the hands of the Thaw family, but on the stand she apparently struggled hard not to tell and, when compelled to do so by the court, she obeyed reluctantly and tearfully.

Questioned by Lawyer.
"Did Harry K. Thaw threaten to take your life?" she was asked directly by Deputy Attorney General Clarke, "Did he at any time say this to you, or this in substance; "I shall have to kill you when I get out of here?"

The courtroom was hushed and Evelyn Thaw turned appealingly to Justice Mills. She begged to be allowed not to answer, because she said she knew she would mour his everlasting unimosity; and her attitude indicated she believed he might carry out his alleged threat. She also urged, with some show of feeling, that she was still Thaw's wife, and no matter how he treated her, she did not want to testify against him. But the court ruled that the only possible grounds upon which she could decline to anawer were that it would tend to incriminate her, and he added he did not see how that would be applicable to her altuation.

Then Evelyn Thaw answered the question. "Yes, he did," she said in a low voice.

"What were his exact words?" de manded Mr. Clarke. "He said: 'When I get out of here !

suppose I will have to kill you." Gives Reason for Threat.

"Why did he say that?" "We were discussing his mental condition. I had asked him what he meant and he said: You know I was not cruzy on the night that I shot White, I usked him again and he said: You know that I missed White by two minutes on the day before," Thaw, when asked about his wife's testimony after court, said he was not surprised at her attitude, but he emphatically dealed that he ever threatened her life.

"It is very plain to everyone that her story is not true," he said. "I never threatened to kill her, First, sho says one thing and then another."

"Is it true that you made an attempt on White's life on the day before the homfelde was committed?" he was

"If I had you would have learned it before this," replied Thaw.

NIGHT RIDERS GRANTED NEW TRAIL.

Jackson, Tenn. The granting of a new trail for the alght riders on account of a techniciaity in selecting the jury has caused a storm of pros-test from Tennessee. The trial in Union City of the 56 alleged night riders of Reelfoot lake has been postponed

Attorney General Caldwell said be personally wished to dismiss the indicments in view of the decison of the supreme court, but his associates urged him to asker a continuance. Among others things General Caldwell says;

"I would not complain if they had gone into the facts of the case and had seen proper to say that the facts did not warrant a conviction, but to roverse so important case on mere technicality seems a tarvesty on Jus tice. Were the defendants guilty? If not, go into the facts and say so; but in the name of justice, let no guilty one escape because of fly specks,

SELF-HEATING IRON

Charcoal in Body of Utensil Keeps

It Always at Same Heat. It always at Same Heat.

From across the seas comes an unusually useful invention in the form of a self-heating iron, evolved by a German brain. It will be understood, at once, that this iron does its work in a neat and orderly manner. The top of the iron is hinged to form a lid and across the bettom of the interior is a grating, on which charcoal is to be hurned. This incline of heating insures the utenual being always at a temperature that fits it for use and there is no danger of dirt of any sort accumulating on the bottom. Tube Holds It Outstretched While Electricity Supplies Heat.

Electricity Supplies Heat.

One thing that makes the washing of the hair a troublesome proceedure for so many women, and which also prevents them from enjoying surf bathlog, is the length of time it takes the hair to dry. This difficulty is overcome by the drying apparatus invented by a New York man, which will dry the hair theroughly in a few minutes. The apparatus consists of a tube leading from a semi-apherical religious in which are fixed a cluster of itude seating from a seminapartical re-flector in which are fixed a cluster of electric bulbs. President Determined to Have His Way About Assessment of Corporation Earnings-Conferees Make Progress in Consideration of Tariff.

Washington, July 16,-Democrats In the house falled to kill the clause in the urgency deficiency bill brought in by Mr. Tawney, which gives $25, 000 to President Taft for traveling expenses.

Members on the Democratic side were unsparing in their charges of bad faith because the house at the last session, as they alleged, pledged itself not to make any additional allowances to the president. This was vigorously denied by Chairman Tawney and his colleague on the approprintions committee, Mr. Smith of Rainey Attacks the Plan. Mr. Rainey of Illinois in attacking said it was understood when the president's salary was increased to $75, 000, that there would be no other allowance. Such a method of boosting the president's salary in order that he might "swing around the circle," in the face of a deficiency of $90,000,-000, was bad faith.

Mr. Clark taking the British king nn an Illustration said that out of the king's allowances many equerries, ladies and goatlemen in waiting and others were paid. For the German emperor, Mr. Clark said, there was oqual reason for the large civil grants to him. He was, he agreed, subjected to great expense. "So what's the use comparing the president with him?"

In concluding Mr. Clark remarked that neither Lincoln, Garfield, nor McKinley was assassinated in the White House or on the White House They all, he said, were taken off while away from the official

While the house was discussing President Taft's traveling expenses. slight, but untulatakable evidences of friction between the president and the conferees on the tariff bill began to disturb the hitherto pleasant relations existing between the White House and the cupitol. They have become apparent in the many calls that have been made upon the chief executive and as a result of the frequent interchange of views.

A last effort has been made by the conferees to induce the president to consent to the striking out of the corporation tax amendment without suc-The president not only told Senator Aldrich and Chairman Payne that he would not withdraw from his position in favor of this tax, but that he was assured of sufficient votes to keep the provision in the bill and to insure its adoption in both houses. The president reiterated this position to several of his callers and is said to have told them that he had been absolutely confident from the first of the enactment of this tax into law.

Decision Pleases Aldrich. Senator Aldrich, it is related, was more pleased than otherwise with the president's decision. Being already committed to the corporation tax, he was anxious that the should understand that this tax is purely an administrative measure and that they must take it as such and not as a concession to the senate.

Excellent progress on schedules was made by the conferces, a large number of differences in chemicals, earthenware, metals and agricultural products having been adjusted. The more important items in these schedules, such as paints and products of lead, from ore, and other raw materials in metals, and barley, were passed over. The decisions in regard to other paragraphs were tentative and therefore were not made public.

Every family using Flour is cordially invited to witness the demonstration and see for yourself. We claim to make just as white bread, just as sweet, and just as many loaves to the sack as any Flour in the city.

OUALITY OF FALCON

The Columbus Laboratories of Chicago made the following test using the best patent flour made as a standard by which to test Falcon:

CHICAGO, Aug. 25, 1908.

SHANNON & MOTT COMPANY, Des Moines, Iowa. Dear Sira: We beg leave to report on Comparative Flour Test na follows: Sample Standard Spring Patent. Gluton-Per Cent 10.5 Ash-Per Cent Absorption-Per Cent Color 100,0 Loaves Per Barrel 100,0 100.0 Quality of Gluten 100,0

NOTE-In the above report the gluten and the ash are expressed as parts in each one hundred parts of the flour. The absorption is the amount of water necessary to add to one hundred parts of the flour to make a dough of standard stiffness. The remaining values are so expressed as to show the relations to the standard flour which for the purpose is given a value of 100 per cent. The loaves produced are made under carefully controlled and uniform conditions and baked in accurately granated baking cylinders in an electric oven. The value expressed as quality of loaf is based upon the color, flavor and texture of the bread. The AVER-AGE VALUE expressed in per cent is the mean value, of color, loaves per barrel, size of loaf and quality of loaf. It should not be taken alone in comparing the value of flours, but each of the factors of which it is made up should receive consideration, and get posted on many good things which we are offering at tempting prices. Remember they are just as good as if you had bought them a month ago. Our time is yours.

Good Things Are Appreciated

We refer particularly to the Wool Suits which we are selling at 11 and $17. The sale on them has been large; in fact of the $17.00 ones we have but two left—one light worsted with broken stripe, one black with satin stripe, both 36. Of the $11.00 suits we have about 20 left. Among them are a number of very decirable suits for school girls, both two and three piece suits. Certainly one of these suits at $11.00 would be about half what it would cost to get the material and have it made. We show the leading colors and the materials are the kind that give satisfaction.

Special Saturday, 23c

All pure linea white suiting, width 34 inches, shrunk from 36 inches. A nice medium weight, excellent for for waists or suits. Good value at 30c to 35c. We bought several hundred yards of these linens at a bargain price, and to emphasize our white goods department we offer them, while they last, at23¢

For Saturday Only

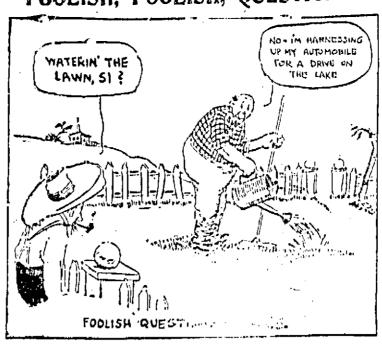

The Greatest Towel Bargain of Recent Years

To keep the mill going during the dull period a large manufacturer made us an offer on a liberal lot if we would buy a liberal quantity of linen towels knowing that they would be a good trade stimulator for July. 25 dozen will be offered for Saturday only. These towels are a heavy huck quality, hemmed ends, all white with two narrow white stripes in border, size 22x42, worth 35c of anybody's money. We hardly think 25 dozen will last throughout the day as they are certainly extra quality, all pure linen and we have never offered such a towel before at such a price. We will be obliged to limit the quantity to 4 towels to any one person. Telephone orders not accepted. Be on hand Saturday and get them at

The Mid-Summer Clearance of Clothing and Shoes Begins Saturday, July 17th

A Festival of Bargains! An Opportunity of the Year!

TVERY year we hold one of these clearance sales They are the money saving events of the year and are looked upon by those who desire to reap a benefit as the money saving chance of the season. We have bought freely for fall and winter and these stocks are already arriving. We must have room; we must get the money out of the remaining summer goods, and to do so quickly have made such substantial reductions as will move the clothing and shoes with a rush. It will pay every man to stock up for the next year on clothing and shoes, every mother to take care of the children's needs for a year, and every woman to lay in her supply of shoes. Every sale has our personal guarantee back of it. IMPORTANT---There will be a crowd in attendance at this sale and we advise trading in the morning so that your wants may be better cared for.

CLOTHING PRICES HAVE BEEN SLICED

We offer every Suit in the store at a big reduction. Men's Suits, newest of patterns, best makes, finest all around qualities, complete lot of sizes, have been divided into four lots, and while they last are yours at a saving.

ANOTHER SPECIAL PIANO SALE

SATURDAY, JULY 17TH Save One Hundred Dollars Quick Sales, Small Profits

One hundred dollars saved is one hundred dollars earned. The proof of the pudding is the eating it. The fact is this: we have the planes that are famous for quality of tone and durability and we can save you one hundred dollars on each plane.

When you buy a Newman Bros. piano at the price that I am selling it for on Saturday, you certainly are getting more than value received. Quick sales and small profits is my mette for Saturday's sale. Sales are being made on these special days. Why? Because our pianos correspond with our advertising truth is enough. When you add to er take from, you are doing an injustice to yourself as well as your neighbor. Our planos speak in harmonious tones for themselves, and if you will take time to call, you will be convinced and wonder why that I am selling Newman Bros. pl. anos at such a low price. My answer is this: many quick sales and small profits.

TO ARSON CHARGE

Herbert McCall of Beloit Will Prob ably De Sent to Green Bay Reformatory on Monday.

Herbert McCall, aged 19, pleaded milty to a charge of arson in the Betolt municipal court yesterday after noon and will probably be committed to the Green Bay reformatory when Judge Rosa, after consulting with State Fire Marshal T. M. Purtell, gases sentence on Monday next. The crime is alleged to have been committed on June 26, 1998. McCall is supposed to have secured a bottle of kerosene; to have poured the contents on an outbuilding in the rear of the dwelling adjoining his Beloit; and to have set fire to it. After the blaze had gotten well started, he sent In a fire alarm and the department extinguished the tinmes before much damage had been done. About the same time a number of fires that seemed to bear the stamp of Incendiary origin occurred in Beolt and the chief of the fire department, with the assistance of R. G. Schelbel, then Police Chief. District Attorney J. L. Fisher, and State Fire Morshall Partell, started an investigation. On July 12, about two weeks lifter the outbullding was set aftre, a state warrant was Issued for McCall's arrest. But the officer who went in search of him learned that he had

BELOIT LOSES BY THE SCHOOL CENSUS

Loss of One Hundred and Ninety-nine Shown Over Last Year's Figures -Many Houses Vacant.

Beloft's school census which has just been completed shows a loss of one hundred and ninety-nine children of school age and also the men take ing the census report fluding many vacant houses. This is explained by the fact that Beloit was more seriously affected by the hard times than was reportile and many former residents were forced to move away from the city to find work elsewhere. The total number of children is given as 4,233 as against 4,132 for last year.

nsurance Journal Says That State Insurance Laws May Make This Move Probable.

According to a leading insurance Journal there is every prospect that the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company which had its origin in Janesville, will be forced to leave the state and take up its beadquarters in some other city awing to the stringent insurance laws. The article referred to says:

"As the time for holding the annual meetings of members and trustees of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company approaches, interest increases in the well-organized movement on the part of a large and influential body of eastern policyholders to force a removal of the home offices of the company from Wisconsin upon the alleged ... antagonistic insurance

"That this question is to be brought forward, in some form, dury the control of the control o there now seems to be no doubt. It was today learned, however, from high authority that a strong effort will be put forth by a number of trustees and by the officials of the company, acting together, to put off the whole matter for six months or a year at least, in the belief that in the meantime public opinion , will centralize with reference to the question and that more friendly herseletters where her and by the officials of the company, that more friendly legislation may be had. It is freely admitted by local trustees that the mtater is now up in earnest and that the legislation that two years ago drove some twen-ty-four life companies out of Wisconsin is also likely sooner or later to drive the great home company away,

Since the first announcement of this organized effort, the home office has been flooded with telegrams, letters, newspaper clippings, editorial expres-sions and the like. All officials reas against 4.132 for last year.

Figuring at the usual rate it is the opinion of the census takers and the hoard that Beloit has lost from 450 to 600 people within the past year.

This loss is traced to the financial stringency, which caused the factories to operate short-handed, thus influencing families to leave the city. Now that conditions have improved and prospects are better it is thought the census next year will show a decided gain.

On or about January first of this year I had an unusually severe attack and was treated disaccessfully by local physicians and by a Chicago Specialist. I was in such shape after the treatment by the specialist that on my return home my face became partially paralyzed and my left eye badly affected.

I was nearly blind and water constantly streamed from both eyes, was weak, sick and discouraged. As a last resort I groped my way to the office of Raymond Puddicombe, Chiropractor, and subjected myself to the Chiropractic adjustments. After the first adjustment I felt much better. My eyes improved till I have no further sign of trouble, my paralyzed face has resumed its natural conditions; where I was getting up every hour of the night to urinate I am now getting up but once and my Kidney and Bladder trouble seems to be removed. CHAPTER XL

OLLINGSWORTH CHASE now felt that he was on neutral ground with the Peterseas with the Skaggs will case is easily explained. After leaving Thorberg he went directly to Paris; thence, after ten days, to London, where he hoped to get on as a staff correspondent for one of the big dullies. One day at the Savage club he listened to a recital of the amazing conditions which attended the execution of Skaggs' will. He had shot wild game in South Africa with Sir John Brodney, chief counselor for the Islanders, and when Bir to Jupat as the firm's representative he leaped at the chance.

In truth Rasula was more than glad to have the services of an American. He had heard Wyckholme talk of the manner in which civil causes were tried in the United States, and he felt that one Yankee on the scone was worth ten Englishmen at home.

The good looking Mr. Chase, writhing under the dread of exposure as an international jackass, welcomed the opportunity to get as far away from civilization as possible. He knew that the Prince Karl story would not lie dormant, but he could not banish the fair face of the Princess Genevra from his thoughts during the long voyage, nor would it be stretching the point to say that his day dreams were of her as he sat and smoked in his bungalow norch.

Before Clase left London Sir John Brodney bluntly cautioned him against the dangers that lurked in Lady Depplugham's eyes.

"She won't leave you a per to stand on, Chase, if you seek an encounter," "She's pretty and she's clever, and she's made tools of better men than you, my boy. I don't say she's a bad lot, because she's too smart for that. Remember, my boy, you are going-out there to offset, not to beset, Lady Deppingham."

Chase was not in love with the that to himself a hundred times a day as he sat in his bungatow and smoked the altuntion over,

He had proved to himself quite beyoud a doubt that he was not in love, when, like a bolt from a clear sky, she stepped out of the oblivion into which he had cast her to smile upon him without warning. It was most unfair. Her amile had been one of the most difficult obstucies to overcome in the offort to return a fair and final ver-

Could anything be more miraculous than that she should come to the unheard of Island of Japat, unless, pessibly, that he should be there when she came? She was there for him to look upon and love and lose, just as he had dreamed all these months. It mattered little that she was now the wife of Prince Karl of Brabetz. To him she was still the Princess Genevra of Rapp-Thorberg.

In his leather pocketbook lay the ever present reminder that she could be no more than a dream to him. It was the clipping from a Paris newspaper announcing that the Princess Genevra was to wod Prince Kurt during

He had seen the Christmas helidars come and go with the certain knowledge in his heart that they had given her to Brabetz as the most glorious present that man had ever received.

Now she was come to the island, and, so far as he had been able to see, there was no sign of the Prince Brabetz in attendance. Her uncle by marringe, an English nobleman of high deson Chase could not imagine. To say that the omission was gratifying to the tall American would be too simple a statement. There is no telling to the arrival of a messenger from the chateau. Ilis blood leaped with anticipation. Could it be possible? But, no, she would not be writing to him. What a ridiculous thought! His hopes fell that us the note was put into his eager hand, it was from Britt., (TO HE CONTINUED.)

SLAIN BANKER'S SECRET IS TOLD IN HIS PAPERS

Brothers of Sayler Examine Docu ments and Discover Startling Evidence Against Miller.

Croscent City, Ill., July 16.-Evidence that J. B. Bayler the banker who was slain by Dr. W. R. Miller sds. pected a plot was on fout to kill him, is said to have been found in the private papers which he kept locked in a safety deposit vault. His brothers opened the packet and, areording to W. R. Nightingale, the papers have a direct bearing on the tragedy. "We can't give what we found to the public, at least not now," said Mr. Nightingale, "I will say, however, that it is evidence which will prove of value to the prosecution of Dr. Miller, who is charged with murder, and of Mrs. Snyler, charged with being an иссияяогу."

As soon as the contents of the packet were learned by Thomas and Willis Saylor, brothers of the late banker, and Mr. Nightingale, State's Attorney Pallissard, at Watsoka, was notified by long-distance telephone. He secured a horse and buggy and came at top speed to this village.

The fourth and final bullet fired at Mr. Sayler was found in the dining room of his late home. Three were previously found in the body. The fourth was embedded in the southeast corner of the room.

Watseka, Ill., July 16,-The singing of a madman in the county juit here disturbed the rest of Dr. W. L. Miller, who killed the Crescent City banker, J. B. Sayler, and that of Mrs. Sayler, widow of the decedent, who are held in connection with the crime.

The crazy man walked the floor in the lower corridor of the jail ceaselessly, singing in a wild and tuneless manner, which set the nerves of the prisoners on edge.

Women Threaten to Burn Houses When Attempt is Made to Oust Them-Coal Miners' Strike Called Off by Union Officials, Pittsburg, July 16,-The company's announcement that it would attempt to operate the mills to-day caused the constabulary, police and private guards to prepare for further bloody battles with the strikers at the pressed steel car plant in McKees Rocks, where hundreds have been wounded in the last two days and a situation as alarming as that at Homestead 17 years ago prevails.

The foreign element, which comprises the main body of the strikers. saw only red when confronted with the uniforms of the mounted constabulary yesterday and it was not long until they had thrown themselves headlong at the minions of the Battle Long and Bloody.

The battle was long and bloody. Backed by 300 deputy sherins armed with riot guns and by about 500 special officers, also heavily armed, the constabulary at noon began one of the worst fights of its career. Black and forth across the town they fought, riding down strikers everywhere, shooting one occasionally, but always in pursuit of alleged ringleaders, who, when caught, were hastly handcuffed and chained to the nearest pillar, while the fight and chase continued.

It is impossible to pive a close estimate of the injured, but it will run into hundreds.

Trooper Fred Frash was knocked from his horse by a rock thrown by a striker, and as he climbed back on his mount, which returned whinand fired over the heads of the mob. This brought a derisive shout and more rocks.

Frash, with blood pouring down his face and reeling in his saddle. now shot into the crowd at close range and his fellow-constables did the same. Several were wounded and the mob fled.

Mob Attacks Brewery.

When, Judgo Evans issued an order to close all saloons 500 strikers attucked the McKees Rock browery, drove off all employes, and taking possession began to roll beer out by the keg and barrel. It took 15 state his cell last night by hanging himself troopers and 50 deputy shering about 30 minutes to oust the strikers by liberal use of clubs.

The most tragle incident of the whole day came late in the afternoon, when 30 mounted constables under orders started to evict the families of strikers from the company's homes at Presston, just outside the works. A mob of nearly a thousand gathered in front of their houses and threatened the officers. Many of the women had lighted gives her a great advantage in her torches and it was ennounced that the warring with her ex-husband, Bont, first move to dispossess any family would result in the entire town of riage. How do you characterize a person who is jealous of another in doing good works? Have we any modern example of the way these people acted? Verse 6-1s the world, to-day, upside down, or right side up?

Is the world getting better or worse? Verse 7-When people oppose the work of God do they generally confine themselves to the truth in their objections, or do they ever confine themsolves to the truth?

Do objectors to the truth knowingly falsify or do they do it in blind ignor ance, or through prejudice?

Verses 10-12-Is there ever any virtue in exposing ourselves to danger, when it is not necessary in the interests of the truth? .

What was the difference between the religious people of Thessalonica and those of Beren?

Is a truth seeker sure to find it? Is it ever right to suppress the truth in the interests of the Kingdom of

Verses 13-15 - What is it which prompts men to work so hard, and persistently in opposing what they know to be the truth? Lesson for Sunday, July 25th, 1909-Paul's Second Missionary Journey-Athens. Acts xvil:16-21.

What Women Are For.

"Every good woman, if I may call myself one, turns the men she cares for round her little finger, and it's the men who are worth most in life who submit most readily to the process. Do you know why God created angels? It was to whisper good thoughts to women. Do you know why he created women? It was to whisper good thoughts to men."-Inner Shring,
